Under the supervision of a staff Anesthesiologist, responsible for providing care for patients undergoing surgery for thoracic and cardiac procedures.

Delivers anesthesia (general, neuraxial, regional, and/or monitored anesthesia care) to a broad patient population undergoing a variety of operative or anesthetic procedures under the supervision of the attending anesthesiologist.

Supervises PGY2-4 anesthesiology residents under the direction of the attending anesthesiologist.

Participates in resident teaching and evaluation.

Participates in call coverage for fellow-level cardiac and thoracic cases.

Participates in medical student teaching and evaluation.

Assists in the coordination of division specific education conferences.

Performs moderate sedation.