4. Invited Presentation: Suzanne Thomas, PhD, Employee Engagement Survey / Press-Ganey survey
   - At least five people need to complete the survey in order to generate a score on how engaged employees are.
   - MUSC Health Units improved their tier scores (used since 2012); goal is for University to do the same. It was accomplished using a clear action plan.
   - The University now also has a clear action plan and Deans are accountable to Provost for discussing how to change tier 3 units.
     - There has not been great participation amongst faculty.
- Asking Faculty Senate to spread the word to complete the survey.
- The surveys will be sent to faculty in mid-January (1/14 to 1/28/19).
- More responses will make data more reliable.
- Historically, only about 65% of faculty responds to the survey.
- There is a moratorium on surveys three weeks before and after this survey.
- Dr. Ben Reynolds on the university side can meet with units about results and can form a focus group for leaders to improve the culture.
- The Institutional Advancement committee is accepting feedback on these surveys.

   - In May of 2017, the Pregnancy Accommodation Act was passed in South Carolina.
     - MUSC initiated a new HR policy 37 for lactation support/rooms and increased break time for new mothers.
   - Communication to faculty decreased since implementation of Yammer.
     - What is the best way to communicate with the faculty?
     - A Faculty Senate newsletter is being developed that will have three bullet points and the minutes will be attached. There will be one survey question. The newsletter will be monthly.

   - Nursing (Sarah Miller): Nothing to Report
   - Pharmacy (Craig Beeson):
     - Following the announcement from the MUSC Board of Trustees that funds for an architectural planning stage for the COP building renovation to the Basic Sciences Building (BSB) were approved, the COP has instigated several activities to support the University’s efforts.
     - Most notably, the extension of two floors at the front of the BSB would not offer any laboratory space largely because of monetary and physical restrictions (chemical safety hood cannot be vented from the second floor into the facia of the remaining, higher floors of BSB).
The Provost is seeking research space in nearby buildings but reliable estimates on the amount and type of research space needed are not readily available. The COP has formed an ad hoc space committee to evaluate current COP space, its utilization, and plans for future growth supported with past historical research activities and funding.
