STUDENT STACKS

Office of Student Financial Literacy

March 2025

MARCH MONEY MADNESS

School is challenging enough– don't let financial stress take over! Managing money wisely can ease anxiety and keep you focused on what matters. Simple habits like budgeting and setting realistic financial goals can make a huge difference in your peace of mind. Remember, you are not alone! OSFL offers resources, counseling, and tips to help you stay financially fit! #FinancialWellness #MoneyMindset

FINANCIAL LITERACY CERTIFICATES EARNED

This semester students gathered to tackle the free Financial Literacy course offered on Brightspace. After completing the course, they earned a certificate in Financial Literacy. Students shared the course really improved their money knowledge. Join the course and learn more today.

FINANCIALLY FIT STUDENTS

★ Graduating Soon? Let's Talk Money!
As you prepare for life after school, make sure your finances are ready too! Tune into our latest episode for expert tips on setting yourself up for financial success!

Episode 17 is one you don't want to miss!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Missed our Investing Series? Catch up on Part 1 and Part 2 on Panopto!

Join the Fun: Money Matters Talks Wednesday, March 5 @ 12:00PM BS502

Book Club: White Coat Investor Guide for Students

Wednesday, March 26 @ 12:00PM BS 502

Find these and check in on upcoming April Fin Lit Month events on ENGAGE!!

1:1 COUNSELING

Graduation looming? Questions about how to repay student loans? Wonder about best practices on salary negation? Connect to OSFL to get personalized answers.

OSFL is dedicated to keeping you informed about the ever-changing landscape of student loans and repayment options. With new policies, repayment plans, and relief programs emerging regularly, we'll provide updates, resources, and guidance to help you navigate these changes confidently. Stay tuned for the latest information to make informed financial decisions.