What's Next?

Hear from graduating Financial Success Mentor, Michelle

The Office of Student Financial Literacy is one of the most meaningful parts of MUSC, reflecting the university's commitment to supporting students beyond just academics. Being part of the first peer mentor group has been an honor. As I move on to the next chapter, I'll leave you with this: an emergency fund is your quiet safety net. Life is unpredictable, but setting money aside has always brought me peace.

Keep your financial goals close—you've got this.

~ Michelle Logan, SPT, Financial Success Mentor
