OFFICE OF STUDENT FINANCIAL LITERACY

Student Stacks

Vol 2 February 2024

WHAT'S THE PAYOUT?

As graduation approaches and the job search intensifies, it's natural to feel excited about leaving behind the student lifestyle and earning a steady income. With several job offers on the table, you'll need to consider various financial factors. These decisions will have a significant impact on your cash flow, making them some of the most important financial choices you will ever make.

What paycheck deductions can we predict?

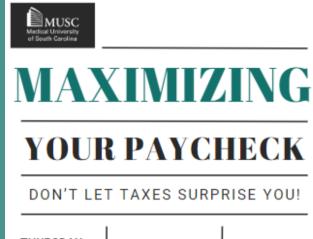

- cost of health insurance
- retirement contributions
- life or disability insurance

What should we factor in to our monthly budget?

• Affordable housing

Office of Student Financial Literacy

• Student loan payments

THURSDAY, FEB 22 @ NOON LUI

EL 114 LUNCH PROVIDED

REGISTER ON ENGAGE

OFFICE OF STUDENT FINANCIAL LITERACY

LEARN MORE

Learn more with a paycheck calculator to help you determine your take home pay. Knowing this number is vital to choosing housing and the right loan repayment plan.

FINANCIALLY FIT STUDENTS

Episode 5: Shape Your Financial Journey Through Mentorship

Upcoming Events

Book /

1:1 COUNSELING

Got financial questions? Connect with us!

Topics:

Student Loans

Budgeting

Salary Negotiation

Total Compensation Package

Saving, Investments, and Retirement

Insurance

Maintaining Credit and Credit Scores

Make an appointment to get answers to these topics and more.

SPRING RETURN OF FUNDS

If you have money left over from your disbursement, here are great reasons you should return funds:

- Money is sent back to your student loan lender and does not accrue interest
- Once completed, you will see the decrease in your student loan balance
- Any returned amount makes an impact on what you will owe in the future
- It's a very simple process! Access the return funds form to begin the process.

Join us for a 1:1 to learn more before the March 15th deadline!

Book a 1:1

Listen to podcast

Join a lunch n' learn

Join Brightspace course